

Join us at Sandia Baptist Church

On Friday, April 13 & Saturday April 14, 2018

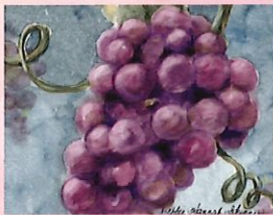

Debbie Hannah Skinner

combines her passion for art and her love of God's Word to give women hope. A gifted artist, Debbie will bring God's Word to life on canvas right before your eyes.

Debbie has shared God's love with women around the world and looks forward to sharing with the women of the CBA. She and her husband, Carey, live in Amarillo, TX.

WORKSHOPS

Bridging the Generation Gap Emily Snook

"You don't speak my language." Working with multi-generations can seem like visiting a foreign country. Ministry Leader Emily Snook will help you navigate the language barrier and learn how to communicate effectively in these situations.

Come to the Banquet Karen Warin

Has your quiet time become dry and stale like a piece of old bread? Are you hungry for more? Join Karen Warin and learn how you can enjoy the feast of God's presence every day.

Connecteasing Audra Grace Shelby

Do you love the Lord and want to share the Gospel but are afraid to reach out one on one? Let former missionary Audra Grace Shelby teach you how to reach others for Jesus by hosting a tea party in your home for your neighbors.

Entrepreneurial Faith Susan Swafford

How do you share your faith in the workplace? Business owner Susan Swafford, founder of Core Advantage, will give you insight into how she has shared her testimony of God's love and grace with hundreds of professional women.
